

Canada: the Only Civilized Nation with NO Legal Restriction on Abortion

How civilized is that?

On January 28, 1988, the Supreme Court of Canada struck down Canada's only abortion law. Since that ruling, abortion is available on-demand through all nine months of pregnancy up to the moment of delivery for any reason or no reason.

Yet polls consistently show that a majority of Canadians believe human life should be protected before birth.

Isn't it time our laws were more civil?
